'Exactly,' Tompkins said. 'The thing could work in no other way. There are the infinite worlds to choose among. Your mind chooses, and is guided only by desire. Your deepest desire is the only thing that counts. If you have been harbouring a secret dream of murder -'

'Oh hardly, hardly!' cried Mr Wayne.

'- then you will go to a world where you can murder, where you can roll in blood, where you can outdo Sade or Caesar, or whoever your idol may be. Suppose it's power you want? Then you'll choose a world where you are a god, literally and actually. A blood-thirsty Juggernaut, perhaps, or an all-wise Buddha.'

'I doubt very much if I -'

'There are other desires, too,' Tompkins said. 'All heavens and all hells. Unbridled sexuality. Gluttony, drunkenness, love, fame - anything you want.'

'Amazing!' said Mr Wayne.

Lets sleep forever

lets not runaway together, no, lets sleep forever
dont ever say goodbye
because the devil smiles to us and god he smiles too
silently agreeing they send their blessings
the temple of your hips, heaven in your fingertips
i'm glad that i found you, arent you forever in your arms, to god to be true, i'm eternally grateful,

thank you

Y.B.S.

I have a plan to reach the stars & if you like to you can come with me too
you dont have to but anyway i'd like you to consider it

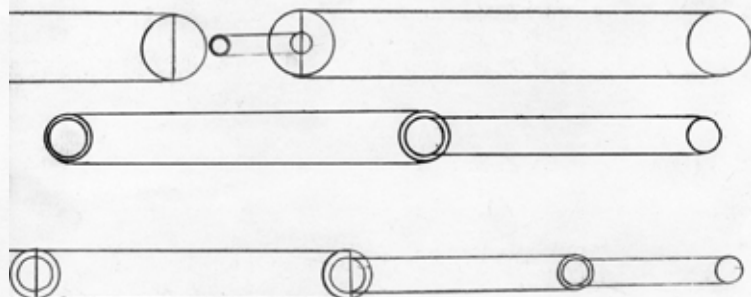

Why you whywhy you why you

your lips so enchanting, darling
those fucked up videos
with your mesmerising under-bite
I wanted to take this moment to objectify you
cause I think you'd like that

Sophia: Here we are again.

Barbara: Something from nothing. One from none.

Sophia: One... Just the idea of one, of something, for that to even exist... where there was only nothing. This is God.

Barbara: Yes, and God... is one...

Sophia: And all, God is all. One is all. One perfect moment.

THESE IS AN FINAL I... WE ALL LIVE IN A WORLD OF KINDS REFLECTION IN OTHER KINDS
Symbols replacing symbols, and it will all come!

Ultimate horror is that inner... is completely transparent to outer you throw some little bit of iron, and if the field is magnetic they will be connected,

A photograph of a dark, reflective surface, possibly a car's rearview mirror or a similar object. The surface is covered in a dense pattern of small, bright gold LED lights. At the top, there are several horizontal lines of lights. Below these, the date "24/10/22" is written in a stylized, cursive font using the same gold LED lights. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.
